Jack M. Loewenstein

DEC 8, 1928 - FEB 2, 2025

Jack Loewenstein, age 96 went to be with his Lord on February 2, 2025. Jack was born to Saul and Marjorie Loewenstein in Philadelphia Pennsylvania and was brother to the late Lois Scott. He was a beloved husband, son, father, sibling, uncle, grandfather and great grandfather. More than that, he was a man of great strength, stellar character and most of all compassion that was expressed in a thousand different ways in his lifetime. Dad believed that all acts of kindness should be done quietly and from the heart. Therefore, few know the extent of his compassion, generosity and love for others.

Jack invariably believed that talk alone was cheap unless it led to action, to make this a better world. He was recognized as an absolutely brilliant scientist and intellectually gifted man. More importantly, Jack was a man of humility and obedient to the Word of God. He was not blinded by the idols of this world such as riches, power or acclaim, but lived to serve God and his fellow human beings. He was a quiet and reserved man yet had the most delightful sense of humor. He often stated that he came into this world quietly and wanted to leave in the same manner. He did not want flowers after death, because so many gave him “true flowers” during his lifetime.

Jack is survived by his beloved wife of 67 years Arline, children Linda (Gabriele) Brega and David (Susan) Loewenstein and grandchildren Rachel, Amy, Daniel and Alex and the rest of our family and dear friends who will all greatly miss Dad’s kindness, humor, knowledge integrity and great insights. Jack will be missed more than words can ever express.

It is so hard to believe that you have finally left us. I remember as a little girl you were strong. Sensitive, loyal and protective. You were honorable, kind and always made time for anyone who came to you. I remember our time together doing yard work painting and your ham radio tower. You taught me me courage, conviction as well as fierce loyslty. You showed me that a man could be kind, protective and loving snd with principles. I remember when you taught me how to ride a bike then the car and reminded me that i did not need to keep my elbows in the air as i was terrified. You were the calm during the storms and your blue eyes exuded kindness. I could look at you snd know what you were thinking. You taught me to work hard, to be a loving person and gave me the courage to forge ahead in my moments of despair . The science fair projects were tackled with patience. You made me strive to have your wonderful qualities. David was blessed with all of your endless qualities such as a man of GOD, an amazing father brother and husband. The joy on your face when you saw your grandchildren was priceless. A piece of my heart has gone away with you but your memory, your jokes and sayings will carry me for a lifetime. We have David whom you groomed to perfection to carry on . I will miss you deeply. No words can express my sense of loss. I pray one day I will see you on the other side Love Linda known as your "chicken"

My father Jack was my first experience of how a man could be strong, compassionate. Bright and loving and loyal. He always made me feel safe and was always honest with me . I grew up cherishing him and would steal moments with him as a little girl. He always made time for those in need and always had a joke memorized to add alittle cheer. He instilled in my brother David all his wonderful qualities .David also became that special gift as well. I remember his thoughtfulness by remembering to buy me a valentine even though i had noone at the time. Dad was a kind, gentle and held onto his convictions .i could look into his eyes and there was a bond and a connection even when words were not spoken. I remember my driving lessons and science fair projects. He gave generously to those who needed help. Although my heart is broken and the finality of his passing is still trying to settle within me. It is my hope that by placing his trust in GOD that one day we will be together again. A part of my heart has gone with him and i will treasure my memories of him for the rest of my life
