I met Barry when we were in our late teens through mutual friends. It was very nice that we remained friends all this time. He had a great sense of humor and was pleasant to be in his company. Blessed be his memory!

I remember sitting with Barry in the waiting area of the delivery room; Joey was giving birth to Joshua. I don't remember how long it was. Finally we got the wonderful news that the baby was born. He's a healthy baby boy. We're now very happy grandparents. What a beautiful memory that we shared. Go in the world of souls dear Barry.
