

Anastasiia Sheremet Cummings

April 25, 1994 - December 13, 2021

Anastasiia Sheremet Cummings, an artistic and loving wife, daughter, and sister passed away unexpectedly from a tragic accident at her home on December 13, 2021, at the age of 27. Anastasiia was born in Dnipro on April 25, 1994, and moved to Miami, Florida on February 10, 2020 to marry her then boyfriend of 3 years and the husband of almost 2 years, Von C. Cummings. It was love at first sight as their eyes first connected in Kiev. They knew at that very moment they had met each other's soulmate and that someday they would get married and start a family together. They were wed on March 8, 2020, in a private intimate ceremony at their home in Sunny Isle Beach, Florida.

Anastasiia was the most loving and caring person with an infectious laugh and heart. She was extremely intelligent and so beautiful with a great sense of humor that always seemed to make others smile. She was a devoted dog owner to Candy, Daisey, Bony and Richi. She had a wide variety of interests spanning from fashion to painting personal art she loved to showcase in her bedroom at night surrounded with candles and nestled next to her beloved dog Candy's resting spot. Anastasiia loved to cook, which she learned from her grandmother and enjoyed spoiling her husband with her legendary borsch and her friends with an assortment of delicious, tasty creations.

In Ukraine, Anastasiia is survived and blessed with a loving Mother Tatiana Kaminska and Grandmother Nadia Kaminska, a Sister Olha Bezkrivona, Brother-in-law Serhii Bezkrivona along with her precious and adorable Niece, Veronika Bezkrivny. Anastasiia both gave and received unconditional love to Liliia Hapchenko, her best girlfriend from her hometown in addition to her other close loving friends Eteri Dzidzigur, Danko Evheniya, Kachko Yana. In Miami, Florida she met Svetlana Portnaia and Maria Maksimkina who became two of her trusted and loving best friends whom Anastasiia truly adored.

Words cannot express how loved Anastasiia is by her husband, friends, family, and those who truly knew this amazing, loving, and one-of-a-kind person. Anastasiia, is dearly missed!
