“ I first met Jeremy as a student in my 8th Grade Spanish class. I watched him grow up as a very kind, loving respectful young man who loved life, especially the world of animals. I even recall the time he spent doing volunteer work at a local animal shelter. And always, he had a smile on his face. This was a happy young man. Be assured many at Lincoln Park Academy are feeling this loss. God bless you, Jeremy.

“ Jeremy was wicked smart. His brain - thought process - worked on a more complex level than most. Jeremy was often quiet - not because he had nothing to say, but because he was listening, not wasting words, analyzing, understanding, - figuring out what made people tick. He appeared more mature, far more wise than his years - an old soul. He is greatly missed. Love & Light to all who are suffering from this great loss.)O(

“ I got to know Jeremy on a family trip to North Carolina. And he fit right in with our family. Helping with chores in the cabin. Cooking meals. Playing his guitar and running from a bear. He was a good boy. Prayers to his family and friends.
