“ I was introduced into this family about 20 years ago and “Unk” who I’m sure was a person I met early on, made an impression on me. When you are an outsider at the beginning you do your best to fit in and be accepted. You want folks to like you. I have always felt confident in my social skills, but Lenny made it effortless. His smile and his carefree demeanor was like a warm blanket. He was genuine. I’ve always enjoyed the word genuine. I think it speaks volumes about one’s character. I’m sure he had moments like we all do, but I cannot imagine him being angry or mean. He was that friend who you really enjoyed seeing. No chore, no inconvenience. He always made you feel welcome. I will miss his smiling eyes and his laugh, his slightly shrugged shoulders and the look on his face that said without words, “ welcome to my home, I’m glad you’re here, let’s enjoy each other’s company.” Thanks for sharing your spirit with all of us. “ To my Uncle who only had one name Unc. No need for further explanation.

I will remember...

you visiting us in NMB with Krispy Kreme donuts. Hot fresh now! To this day no other donut will do.

Resting your eyes in the recliner. No you were not asleep.

Going to the dat dat do's. Some people call it pony rides but clearly they don't know the proper name for it

You marrying our Auntie. Making me a cousin with one of my best friends! How awesome is that?!?!?

You watching our (Barbara, Jenn and my) dances on the trampoline in your Pembroke Pines home. Flashdance, Grease 2, Footloose we preformed to them all.

Sleep overs at Aunty and Uncles particularly when we were moving from NMB to Miramar.

All yhe Jewish and not so Jewish holidays all have you in them. Finding the Matzo. Matzo ball soup and the pink turkey

Going to the pool.

The bottom pieces that Jenn referenced they were never any good.

However if it was turtle it was your favorite!

You were always there and will forever remain in the hearts of those who love you.

Love you Unc.

“ Unc--you will be missed beyond measure.

As I sit here thinking about you---there are just so many memories!!! Being on school breaks and going with you, Auntie, Barb & Brett to the Miami Zoo. Janine, Barbara and I putting on shows after family dinners. All the barbeques, birthdays, anniversaries and holidays we celebrated! A few things really stand out in my memory and I hope some of my memories will make others smile.

- Fozzie Bear - I have no idea why but ever since I was little I have associated you with Fozzie bear there must be a story there that I don't remember.

- The "bottom pieces" - every family dinner :) those bottom pieces never do taste as good.

- Beh Meh - I think you and Gam may be the only people I ever heard say that.

- Bruski - I think I may have inherited your love of beer!

As you are reunited with those that went before you -- give them our love.

Auntie--May these shared memories of love bring you peace at this difficult time!

We love you!

Jenn, Joe, Jake & Max
