“ I knew Leslie was a second cousin on my mother's side of the family, but being from NY, our paths never crossed until I was curious enough to delve into my grandmother's family tree – and oddly enough a man in England, whom Leslie had been in contact with concerning our great-grandmother, gave me her email address. Even though that was just 1.5 years ago, I was very happy to have made contact with a cousin, and we became fast friends. I am so very sorry our time was cut short and we never had the chance to meet in person, but am relieved she is out of pain and the all the suffering she endured. She was Very Blessed to have Jad as her Loving, Caring and Dedicated husband.
Gone too soon – God Bless XOXO
