“ My Grammy was the happiest, cheerful, joyous person you could meet. I am so lucky that I had Grammy with me for 28 years, and I know I'll have her with me in my heart for the rest of my life.

Grammy was all you can ask for. A loving grandmother, a loving and very supportive mother to my mom, and truly a “great” grandmom, among much more. From when I was very young, some of my favorite days and weekends were going over to Hallandale to 10K, to spend the day with Grammy Mitz and Pop Pop Mort. Grammy, in her true style lived on the beach with a man that was an amazing Pop Pop and an incredible Husband to my Grammy. They were so in love, and just like they cruised the seas throughout life I know there cruising right now together reunited at last.

Whenever I think of Grammy, her smiling face comes to mind, some hand waving motions of “poo poo poo, rain go away go away” a song that she used to sing for me to make the rain go away, and all her silly, loving, and cheerful quotes. All she ever wanted to do was be positive, which impacted my life tremendously. I'm a huge believer in positivity, positive thinking, and that 100% came from Grammy. She was a strong person that always was positive no matter what.

Grammy I love you so much, I'm listening to Alex Fox right now jam on the guitar, such happy, fun, uplifting music, I know and can see why he was your favorite! I love you Grammy, I will think about you every day but know you're with me. You brought the world not only the “happy song,” but joy, happiness, positivity, and a beautiful contagious smile. I would give so much to be able to sit with you on the couch or at the dinner table one more time but know you're cruising away right now in the dining hall with Pop Pop talking about tonight's show!

I love you Grammy and my memories are priceless and will be with me forever and ever.
