

Susan Jayne Luck

February 16, 1948 - June 5, 2022

Susan Jayne Luck, 74, passed away peacefully in Hollywood, Florida on Sunday, June 5, 2022, surrounded by her loved ones. Susan Luck was a pioneer in the fields of integrative health, holistic nursing, and nurse coaching. She was co-founder of the International Nurse Coach Association, and taught and developed coaching programs, nationally and internationally in addition to authoring and co-authoring many books on nutrition, environmental health, holistic and integrative nursing, nurse coaching and leadership. Ms. Luck is recognized for the award-winning book (ANA Gold Seal, 2015) Nurse Coaching: Integrative Approaches for Health and Wellbeing (2015). Ms. Luck developed and implemented integrative health initiatives for diverse community organizations and was the founder and education director of the EarthRose Institute, a Miami-based not-for-profit organization dedicated to environmental health education and advocacy. Ms. Luck was the Nutrition consultant for Special Immunology Services at Mercy Hospital in Miami, Florida and the Director of Nurse Coaching at Rezilir Health in Hollywood, Florida. For Ms. Luck, healing and caregiving and promoting the well-being of others through teaching, modeling, coaching and practice was a mission...a calling. Her strength, compassion, intelligence, sense of humor and spirit brought much light to the world and will live on in everyone she touched and influenced. Ms. Luck leaves behind her beloved sister, Karen Luck Firestone and brother-in-law, Dr. Mark Firestone; her adored nephew and nieces, Jared, Emmy and Tara Firestone; and her loving and beloved partner, Robert Daigler. In lieu of flowers, kindly make donations to EarthRose Institute, <http://donate.earthrose.org>. A Memorial Service to celebrate Ms. Luck's extraordinary life will be held on Friday, June 17, 2022 at 2:00 pm EDT at Levitt-Weinstein Blasberg-Rubin-Zilbert Memorial Chapel, 188840 W. Dixie Hwy., North Miami Beach, FL 33180 (305) 932-2700
