“ Dad was a loving father devoted to his family. I will forever be grateful for all that you did for me over the years. You are the best father one could ask for in a dad. Have no worries we will take care of mom until you meet again in heaven. Thank you for the message in the song that played as you left home. You definitely had a date with the Angels Saturday night and entered heaven. I have no doubt that you are in heaven with Michael and Allan. Don't forget to send me messages. I will take over the love and care of the orchids going forward. I love you! Debra
